A Selected List

PREFACE

This bibliography was prepared for the use of the library student, the library assistant, and all users of the public library who may be interested in the subject of translations of foreign fiction.

It does not pretend to be a complete list. The aim of the compiler has been to bring together, in more convenient form, the translated material from the various languages, so as to make it more accessible to the seeker for this information.

Each book in the list was examined at the time of compilation. It was available either in the reference department, the circulation department, or in the Library School of the New York Public Library.

Some of the earlier publications are probably out of print, but entries were made for every book in fair condition, with a reasonable length of life before it, in the hope that it would prove of value to the person making a study of the style of fiction of the different periods in the various countries.

The general arrangement is by language, French and German first, these being the largest divisions; the other languages are arranged alphabetically. Under each language there is an alphabetical arrangement according to author. The title index is arranged alphabetically according to title, with cross references from other titles for the same book.

Grateful acknowledgment is due to Miss Catharine Tracey for her helpful criticism, to Mrs. J. S. Millener and Miss E. J. Grimm for help in proofreading.

8. THE PUBLIC LIBRARY MOVEMENT IN THE
1913 UNITED STATES, 1853–93. By Samuel Swett Green. 336 pages with index, and portrait of author. Cloth, $2.25. Weight 2½ lbs.

This book shows the progress from year to year of the public library; it gives the history of the American Library Association to 1893, and has many sketches of early librarians. A book of absorbing interest to all librarians.

9. LAW, LEGISLATIVE AND MUNICIPAL REFER-
1914 ENCE LIBRARIES, an introductory manual and bibliographical guide. By John B. Kaiser. 467 pages with full appendix and index. Cloth, $4.00. Weight 3 lbs.

This work treats very fully the scope, materials, and methods of the three classes of special libraries described. It is a source-book for students of State and Municipal Government. It covers a new field of library development and there is no other book on the subject.

10. GLOSSARY OF LIBRARY TERMS in English, Danish,
1915 Dutch, French, German, Italian, Spanish, and Swedish. By Axel Moth. 68 pages. Paper, 75c. Postage 3c.

Part one gives the English term with definition, followed by synonyms in each of the other seven languages. The second part gives an alphabetical list of the terms under each language, with the English equivalent.

11. LIST OF SERIES AND SEQUELS FOR JUVENILE
1915 READERS. By Katharine H. Wead. 51 pages. Paper, 50c. Postage 3c.

An index to the Juvenile Books which have been published in series, or have had sequels. Arranged by authors, with an index to series at the end. Spaces are provided for additions and notes. Invaluable for children's librarians.

12. INSTRUCTION IN THE USE OF BOOKS AND LIBRA-
1915 RIES, a text-book for Normal Schools and Colleges, by Lucy E. Fay and Anne T. Eaton, of the University of Tennessee Library. 449 pages, 17 illustrations, and 53 figures. Cloth, $2.25. Weight 2 lbs.

In three parts, this book shows very thoroughly and concisely the development of the book, the use of books and of libraries, especially in work with children. It also covers the technical field of classification, cataloging, etc., as found necessary in the administration of the school library. A book of value to all small libraries, and necessary wherever children's work is done

13. MODERN DRAMA AND OPERA, VOLUME 2, with an 1915 introduction by Archibald Henderson: "The Drama in America." Reading lists on Barker, Björnson, Brieux, Chekhov, D'Annunzio, Echegaray, Fitch, Galsworthy, Gorki, Hervieu, Hauptmann, Ibsen, Jones, Maeterlinck, Phillips, Pinero, Rostand, Schnitzler, Shaw, Strindberg, Sudermann, Synge, Tolstoi, Wilde, Yeats; also Humperdinck, Leoncavallo, Mascagni, Massenet, Saint-Saëns, Debussy, Puccini, and Strauss. Cloth, 255 pages. $2.00. Weight 2 lbs.

While consisting largely of new bibliographies, this volume also brings down to date the volume of same title, published in 1911 (see No. 4). It is annotated and has a title-index to the plays covered (some 675 in all). The most complete work on this subject yet compiled.

14. TECHNICAL TERMS USED IN BIBLIOGRAPHIES
1915 AND BY THE BOOK AND PRINTING TRADES. By Axel Moth. Cloth, vii + 263 pages, $2.25. Weight 1¾ lbs.

This is a supplement to Walter's Abbreviations and Technical Terms (see No. 5), in that it omits all terms given in that book. But this volume covers a much broader field — including terms used by bibliographers, booksellers, publishers, book manufacturers, printers, papermakers, engravers, binders — in English, Danish, Dutch, French, German, Italian, Latin, Spanish, Swedish. The English chapter gives definitions of terms and the synonym in each of the other eight languages; the chapters under each language enable one instantly to get the English meaning of any foreign term. (Nos. 5 and 14, bound in 1 volume, Special Handy Edition. Cloth. $3.00. Weight 3 lbs.)

15. INDEX TO FAIRY TALES. By Mary H. Eastman of the 1915 Wilmington (Delaware) Institute Library.. Cloth, ix + 311 pages, $2.25. Weight 2 lbs.

This index analyzes 488 books of Fairy Tales, giving the stories in one alphabet with title of book in which they appear. By cross references, and parenthetical titles the variant names for the same story are brought out. A list of all the books indexed is added. (This is an entirely new compilation, and contains some four times as many entries as the Index published in Bulletin of Bibliography.)

16. BOOKS AND LIBRARIES. By John Adams Lowe,
1916 Agent Free Public Library Commission of Massachusetts, former librarian of Williams College. 71 pages, paper, 50c. Postage 3c.

A manual of instruction in the use of books and libraries. Designed especially for college students, but of value to any small public library or college library. It treats of The Catalog, Classification and shelf arrangement of books, Magazine indexes, General and special reference books.

17. THE PRACTICAL USE OF BOOKS AND LIBRARIES,
1917 an elementary manual. Third Edition. By Gilbert O. Ward. x + 118 pages. Cloth, $1.25. Weight 1¼ lbs.

18. TRANSLATIONS OF FOREIGN NOVELS. By Minerva
1917 E. Grimm. Cloth, 88 pages, $1.00. Weight 1 lb.

A selected list for the use of those interested in foreign fiction. Arranged by language, covering French, German, Belgian, Chinese, Danish, Dutch, Egyptian, Flemish, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Norwegian, Japanese, Polish, Roumanian, Russian, Spanish, Swedish.

At the end of the book is an alphabetical index to all titles listed.

19. A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION FOR SMALL LIBRA-
1917 RIES. By Mrs. Minnie Clarke Budlong. 71 pages. Cloth, $1.00. Weight 1 lb. (Also issued in paper, single copies, 75c. Postage 3c. Quantity orders at special discount.)

This little booklet, covering methods of work, and lists of supplies for organizing small libraries, will be found very practical and there is no other similar work in print. Small libraries already organized will find this a useful book for the information it gives in condensed form regarding all parts of library work in a small city or town.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS

THE BOOKLOVER AND HIS BOOKS

By Harry Lyman Koopman, Librarian of Brown University. 1917. x + 185 pages. Library buckram, gilt top, $2.00. Weight 2 lbs. The author discusses, in 24 independent, but related essays, the book as an art object and as a source of personal culture. Bright, interesting, intimate talks by a lover of good books, describing the book ideal, its paper, type, margins, binding. This book, printed from imported Bodoni 12-point type, on an appropriate paper, and bound to A. L. A. specifications, aims to be an example of that perfection described within.

THE DRAMATIC INDEX

Bound in Library buckram, at $4.25 a volume net, delivery extra. About 340 pages. Annual volumes published about March first.

Back volumes since its beginning in 1909 available, $4.00 each; delivery extra. Weight about 3 lbs. Special price on full sets.
